Staff was employed on 15/07/2008 with WASSC June 2008 and NCE 2006 certificate. That is to say she completed her NCE before her Secondary School Examination. This is an ambiguity that put a searchlight on NCE certificate because there is no prerequisite academic qualification. Staff was employed on GL07 by LGEA instead of SUBEB. The information on the FSLC indicates that staff started primary school at the age of 3, which also place a doubt on the authenticity of the FSLC.	The data contained on the FSLC as regard age and year of enrolment and NCE as regard year of award does not just add up which put a doubt on the genuineness of the TWO certificates. This further hint that the document was fraudulently obtained. The offer of employment purportedly issued by SUBEB was spurious with the understanding that this kind of offer did not come throughout the year 2010 and until this is clarified, Staff may not be cleared.	Suspicious FSLC/Age falsification; Going by the FSLC, the Staff started School at the age of two (2), i.e from 1984 to 1986 which is practically impossible, this means the FSLC was fraudulently acquired to falsify his age. As further proof to the issue of age falsification, the WASC attached was obtained in 1998, meaning that he finished Secondary School at the age of fourteen (14), which was not possible at that time.
